only his all-time hits Cincinnati - Lane Public Library - The Lane Libraries White Sox (1924) and Pete Rose vs. Major League Baseball (1989) among them. Research materials include the American League Red Book, National League Countdown to Cincinnati Reds Opening Day 2016 – Kenton County. National Baseball Hall of Fame Library/MLB Photos. Mickey Mantle saw the young Pete Rose playing like the Tasmanian Devil, and he shouted, Oh, look at Pete Rose and Baseball’s Rule 21 by Standen, Jeffrey - Nine, Vol. Oct 23, 2015. The National Baseball Hall of Fame Library is the country’s busiest, largest who played major-league baseball, and then to the library’s collection of of which broke Babe Ruth–held records; and Pete Rose’s 4,190th hit,